

Finance Apple products at 95% of the price. Extended through December.

Leasing allows for better control over cash flow, full equipment/software solutions, and less hassle dealing with technology no longer being used. Qualifying businesses can pay 95% of the total equipment price over 24 months. At the end of the lease term you can return the equipment, pay month to month, or buy the equipment at fair market value.

24 month FMV lease at 95% of equipment price.*

To calculate your lease payment, simply multiply your equipment list (without tax) by 0.95, then divide the dollar amount by 24.
